What is Club Rewards®?

Club Rewards is the rewards program from Diners Club that offers flexibility and personal choice to members. Club Rewards offers cardmembers the opportunity to earn frequent flyer miles, merchandise and exclusive travel options simply by using the Diners Club Card.

How does the program work?

Earning Club Rewards points is easy. For every eligible dollar you charge to your Diners Club Card, you automatically earn one Club Rewards point ($1 charged = 1 Club Rewards point). Charges that are eligible for points include, but are not limited to, airline, restaurant, hotel, car rental, service station, mail and online orders, and retail charges. Annual fees, payments, cash advances, foreign conversion and insurance charges are ineligible for points accrual.

See Club Rewards terms and conditions, some cards earn at different rates.

Club Rewards® points are earned on all purchases less credits. One Club Rewards point is awarded per eligible dollar charged on all Diners Club® Card products, except for the Diners Club Credit Card that awards one Club Rewards point for every two dollars charged and certain centrally billed Corporate Card accounts that earn at different ratios. Transactions not eligible for Club Rewards points include, but are not limited to, card fees, additional card fees, payments, cash advances, foreign conversion charges and insurance charges. There are circumstances where Club Rewards points may be forfeited.

How do I join Club Rewards? Is there an enrollment fee?

Enrollment is not automatic for Corporate Cardmembers as Club Rewards is an optional program. The organization determines whether its cardmembers are eligible to participate.
